ment manual. Bottom right: Mr. Larry Yon discusses employment opportunities with the Department of the Army.

The Career Counseling and Placement Bureau serves as a crossroad for graduating seniors, graduate students, law students, and alumni as they continue their plans for the transition from the classroom to the "world of work." Additionally, a full-time career counseling program is offered for students, faculty, and staff relative to employment opportunities in various types of business, industrial, educationally oriented, governmental and private employing sectors.

More than 500 representatives from throughout the United States visit the Career Counseling and Placement Bureau during the academic year to conduct interviews with prospective candidates for employment with their respective firms, agencies, and institutions. Part-time job placement counseling is also available for students desiring part-time work while enrolled in academic sessions, and cooperating education (alternating semester sessions of in-school study with on-the-job training) is available beginning with the sophomore level.

The staff of the Career Counseling and Placement Bureau wish the Class of 1974 every success in your quest for the career of your choice, and stand ready to assist you.

OF

Miss Nora Thomas

Crossing The Bar

Sunset and evening star And one clear call for me! And may there be no moaning of the bar When I put out to sea

But such a tide as moving seems asleep, Too full for sound and foam, When that which drew from out the boundless deep Turns against home.

Twilight and evening bell, And after that the dark! And may there be no sadness of farewell, When I embark;

For though from out our hourne of time and place The flood may bear me far, I hope to see my Pilot face to face When I have crossed the bar.

-Alfred Lord Tennyson

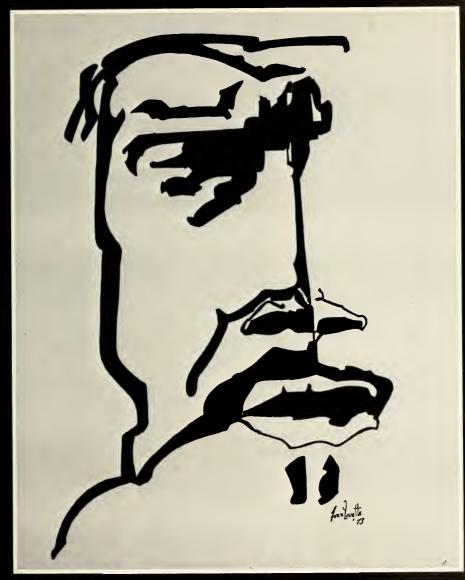

"IF ONE MAN IS NOT FREE, NO MEN ARE FREE!!"

Martin L. King Jr.

Lord, we ain't what we oughta be. We ain't what we wanna be. We ain't what we gonna be. But thank God, we ain't what we was.

Martin Luther King

I make up for my failure to succeed with my sincerity and dedication to get the task done.

C. Belvin Walton Jr.

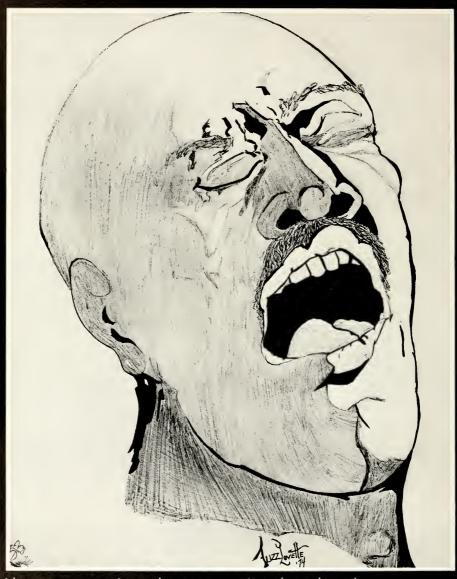

We want freedom by any means necessary.

Malcolm X

Look at me, I am here, I am Black, I have pride, I have dignity, I have roots. And I demand that I take part in those decisions that affect my life and the lives of my children.

Whitney M. Young Jr.

I have no protection at home, or resting place abroad.
I am an outcast from the society of my childhood,
and an outlaw in the land of my birth.
I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner as all my fathers were.

Frederick Douglass

1973 HOMECOMING

Homecoming week began on Monday, October 22, with Maroon and Gray Day and the crowning of Miss NCCU and Miss Homecoming. During the pageantry, the audience was entertained by singers and dancers from the University. A formal reception followed the ceremonies. Excitement mounted with a pep rally on Tuesday night in the Women's Gym. Maintaining the tradition of previewing fall and winter fashions, numerous style-setters modeled their apparel in appropriate settings on Wednesday. Many students shivered around the jukebox on Thursday night during the annual street dance. On Friday, the mourners turned out for the mock-funeral of a South Carolina State Bear and joined in a New Orleans-style funeral with full regalia. Following the funeral, the cheerleaders led the crowd in familiar songs and yells around the bonfire. Saturday morning began with a dawn dance and breakfast, followed by the colorful parade of bands, queens, and floats. Playing before an overflowing crowd of ardent fans, the Eagles met the Bears in a MEAC contest. Homecoming week ended on Saturday night with an exciting concert featuring the Isley Brothers. Students — past and present — enjoyed another successful Homecoming.
